CONCEPTS

#TeamBuilding

Message from CEO

Merle Lipman Watkin

Blue Naartjie is a recognized leader in corporate team-building programs and events, where excellence and customer satisfaction are our main priorities. As Blue Naartjie Concepts keeps evolving, we've developed more and more activities that set us head and shoulders above the competition. We deliver superior team-building events that will remain memorable for your staff for many years to come.

Being a brilliant team player or leader has never been so important. Teamwork is the driving force behind any organization; get it right and the results speak for themselves, get it wrong and you're in for a rough ride.

Blue Naartjie Team Building is a recognized leader in corporate team-building programs and activities. We offer meaningful, fun, and unique activities that everyone can participate in. Our approach to training is that it has to be fun, engaging, and transformational.

THE WHO, WHAT, WHERE AND HOW!

We are your #1 team-building specialists.
Start inspiring your team differently.

With over 10 years of industry experience, Blue Naartjie offers superior team building and group development facilitation. We take a fresh and holistic approach to your group dynamics. We are 100% mobile and therefore service the countrywide. Our most popular activities include "Amazing Race" and "Urban Golf." We guarantee 100% participation in non-physical activities. We deliver superior group development events that will remain memorable for your staff for many years to come.

We offer tailor-made packages to suit your group and budget needs.

THE GOALS...

Blue Naartjie Concepts addresses the client's team goals and objectives. The objective of our Team Building Activities Workshop is to ask:

- How well placed are we to achieve our client's team goals?
- What could block or prevent us from achieving them?
- What are our strengths as a service provider? What do we have to achieve these goals?
- What do we need to improve or develop to achieve success?

THE SOLUTION...

It's all about the facilitation and how we engage with the group. Blue Naartjie places emphasis on how your group will be engaged by our facilitators so that whatever team-building activity you decide on, from fun team events to intensive team interventions, your group will walk away smiling. Our leadership development programs target basic supervisory skills, as well as the higher-level competencies needed by senior executives.

THE ADVENTURE...

We offer you the option of starting the adventure before the actual event date. Our Creative team will design an emailer header message which is sent out prior to the event. These fun and tongue-in-cheek military-styled directives are quite cryptic, informing attending delegates of the forthcoming event... all without giving out the details. All of our adventures are concluded with a prize-giving and an overview of the group's participation. Our awards are industry leaders as we put our efforts into allowing everyone to take a good look and have a laugh at themselves whilst laughing with their colleagues.

We provide:

- A choice of costing options between Category [A] and [B] activities.
- Qualified and experienced facilitators for all activities.
- P.A. system, microphones, background music, and a data projector if required.
- Coloured team bandannas as required (activity dependent).
- Prizes and/or certificates.

What's in it for the attendees? Our adventures are known for their engaging, absorbing, and highly entertaining format, as well as for their desirable outcomes.

Amazing Race

Travel AROUND THE WORLD in this exciting task-based activity. Teams are challenged both mentally and technically. Teams need to be careful when planning whilst integrating their various skill sets, and effective time management to engineer solutions for each challenge that confronts them. Road detours, roadblocks, and yields need to be negotiated before being allowed to continue ahead.

Archery

ARCHERY is a great way to be with colleagues, learn a new sport that's as old as history itself, while competing against one another. This fun and stress-free activity will develop skills and temperament needed to excel in today's corporate world. Each toxophile or archer gets the opportunity to assist their teams in scoring a range of popular board games where the score you shoot acts as the roll of the dice.

Corporate Fun Day

A mix of traditional and non-traditional sports events and games, as well as a range of "Funfair" activities, are hosted under unique playing conditions where individual input will benefit the outcome of the team. Emphasis is placed on the whole group's participation, making all of the challenges a test of wit, cunning, and outright cheek, and maybe a little skill. Challenges include Egg-and-Spoon relay and more!

Bush Orchestra

Imagine the team becoming masters of a “musical instrument” and then playing together with other instruments as an orchestra to create a musical melody of which they can be proud. The teams are either provided with a complete traditional instrument or need to assemble their own improvised instrument using materials provided. Typical instruments include, but are not limited to, rhythm sticks, djembe, etc.

Crime Scene Investigation (C.S.I)

A dead body is found—is it foul play? Join the investigation and help crack the case. With a perceptive eye, analyse and assess the crime scene, collect and process any evidence found, and return reports that can be used by your team of CSIs. Teams need to be able to organise, manage, and ultimately follow leads in the case. Teams use their collective powers of detection, observation tactics, and precision.

Cardboard Regatta

ALL ABOARD!! The challenge goes against all logical thinking as we compel teams to design, manufacture, and then float a watertight boat made entirely from cardboard. During the activity, teams earn materials for their project, such as bits of cardboard, tape, string, and anything else we can think of that will give them an advantage in the task at hand and help them create a floating marvel.

Push Kart Grand Prix

An opportunity to be young again! Teams are faced with the challenge of assembling a complete kit kart or go-kart, using detailed instructions and supervision from our qualified facilitators. Teams tackle challenges and tasks that earn them components and tools needed for their project assembly. This process is grounded in both the reality and uncertainty of the task, as well as the teams' ability to work together.

Human Foosball

Come up with a fancy team name, take your shoes off, and become an integral part of the team as you face off against the opposition. It's like playing the table version, only now you're part of it in life size. Played on a 24 x 12 m blow-up pitch with teams of no more than 8 players each, players are tethered to shock cord runs that only allow side-to-side movement. By passing the ball between your own players, teams aim to score.

X-trordinary Golf

This activity can be played wherever there's space, be it in the office or out in the car park. Using man-made structures, buildings, ponds, gardens, veld, manicured lawns, and trees, teams are confronted with designing a golf hole on their own golf course. Teams construct the hole with whatever they can find in the office. Whether it's 9 or 18 holes, players can play as individuals, pairs, or 4-balls.

OUTDOOR

Frisbee Golf

Corporates are offered the opportunity to engage in a competitive challenge against colleagues in a safe yet entertaining activity, allowing participants to solve many of these scenarios through sport and play. Frisbee Golf is similar to the traditional game, except it is played with a bag full of different frisbees. Teams throw for par, and if they card an over score, it’s possible that some sort of forfeit is needed.

Create an event

CREATE an event activity option allows you the option of tailoring your own event. For this challenge there is a min. group size: 30 delegates. Groups are divided into teams (5-10 players each). Teams compete to earn points towards their final score.

We provide:

- Experienced facilitators for all activities.
- P.A. system, background music, and data projector (if required).
- Team bandanas (if required; activity-dependent).
- Prizes and/or certificates.
- Inclement weather alternative activity provided.
- For a half day (2-3 hrs) of activities: select 5 activities.
- For a full day (4-5 hrs) of activities: select 8 activities.

Workshops

A group of diverse people, including men and women of various ethnicities, are gathered around a table in a meeting room. They are all smiling and holding their hands together in a circle, symbolizing teamwork and collaboration. The table in front of them has several white coffee cups, papers, and a small potted plant. The background shows a modern office environment with a circular light fixture on the ceiling.

AWESOME, POWERFUL WORKSHOPS

These training and strategy-based workshops are designed to be informative, interactive, and skill-enhancing, which leaves delegates feeling a sense of empowerment and belonging.

Standard workshops offered on diversity in the , workplace, leadership, brilliant teams, and self-belief, as well as overcoming obstacles.

Marooned

Could you be marooned on an uninhabited island? What would you do to survive? Here's the opportunity to find out how you and your team would cope when you find yourselves stranded and alone. Survival is key, but does everyone think the same way as you? With the use of audio/visual props, players are taken through several real-world scenarios, where responsibility and definite decision-making are important requirements.

LET's GO Lego

Is fingernail chewing or hanging off the edge of your seat type of activity, as each team must master a construction using only plastic Lego-type building blocks? Once the instructions have been explained, teams need to study the requirements of the activity while paying attention to detail. However, these instructions are open to interpretation, so will everyone agree?

Star Gaze

Star Gaze, an entertaining, interesting, interactive talk, followed by a viewing through a telescope (weather permitting). We also ask the questions that have puzzled you for years. Discussion around the telescope is inevitable. A presentation and quiz session providing a Q&A. Steer away from the "deadly boring science" and cover topics that are visible in our night's sky as well as current events in astronomy.

Brilliant Team

Any organisation, business, or corporate entity depends upon great teamwork for its success. Teams require leadership for direction, experience, and motivation to perform. Often, the person accredited with this responsibility has experience only and little or none of the other tools required to lead a group productively.

Laughter Workshop

CAUTION: Side effects ahead, ranging from improved morale, reduced stress, improved energy levels, team cohesion, and improved productivity. Use this powerful tool to transform your team. It allows everyone the benefits of these side effects of joyful laughing.

Classic Firewalk

This is a highlight activity for any social or corporate event. Our experienced instructors offer a unique, fun, and interactive workshop on how we mostly operate in "fight or flight" mode, with fear being the contributing factor and how it is responsible for underachievement.

Slacklining

Tired of telling yourself 'I can't!' ? Well, you can! Prove to yourself that you can achieve spectacular results whenever you take up the challenge. Slacklining is a no-risk practice in balance and determination that uses a nylon webbing strap tensioned between two anchor points approximately 400 mm above the ground. This dynamic and fun activity allows you the opportunity to achieve a variety of feats, all with the aid of our skilled instructors.

Joint Effort

Joint Effort requires cooperation, leadership, listening, and communication, making it the ideal activity to get a collective group of people to pull in unison towards the same goal. What's needed for teams to succeed and survive in today's world? The answers lie within each participant, and Joint Effort lets these qualities show for themselves.

Balloon Tower

Test the limits of cooperation as teams are tasked with constructing a structure out of modelling balloons only. Teams receive just enough equipment and materials to build a structure, collaborating on the design and implementation of the build. Teams are judged on participation, adherence to rules, and the height of the structure, with the ceiling being the only limitation—besides time.

Let's Get Trading

This offers an experience of what the early prospectors did when they were trading, buying, swapping, and/or selling just to survive. Gold, wheat, barley, corn, wood, farm implements, livestock, dynamite, picks, pack donkeys, etc., were traded on the trading floor back in the day. Teams need to manage the hardships and pressures of cold, hard trading in this activity where no one escapes.

Collaboration

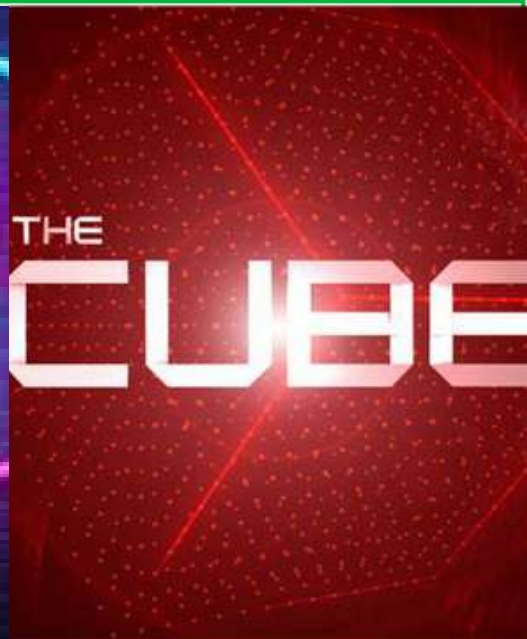

Collaboration is the ideal activity to break a long day of conferencing. Each player gets a playing card and is placed in a team for the duration. Depending on the game being played, it's each team player's responsibility to work out how they can assist their team in achieving the best outcome. The activity requires communication, decision-making, and strategy.

Game Shows

Our game show presenters capture the essence and excitement of popular TV game shows. We integrate team play and team-building skills, mixed with audience interaction, to perfectly style them into an awesome live performance game show for your event!

The most popular formats are in the style of Jeopardy, Family Feud, or a pub quiz. Our event planners can work with you to customise the trivia to meet your company needs, or we can provide our existing entertainment-themed trivia.

A complete interactive audio-visual event.
Duration: 1 to 2 hours per activity.

Minute to Winnit

In Minute to Winnit (Minute to Win It), teams compete against each other and the clock. Our experienced facilitators will challenge them with improbable yet possible, fun-filled, challenging tasks and problems, resulting in players using hidden talents and skills to help their team climb the leaderboard. This activity is suitable for everyone, where each player is engaged throughout the activity (everyone has a role to play in every round). Teamwork, communication, and ultimately —fun—are the order of the day, hosted either indoors or outdoors.

The Super Quizz Game Show

Who's the team's "weakest link"? Who's going to make a "mistake," and who's the "brains of the outfit"?

The Super Quizz Game Show poses trivia questions that give each team the opportunity to answer before the others. Hit the buzzer or ring the bell when you have the answer and give your team first stab at answering the question; if it's wrong, you'll get points taken off, and another team gets a chance to answer the question. Loads of fun, frustration, teamwork, and just good old common sense.

A fun-filled 60 to 90 minutes.

The Cube

Based on the TV reality show, The Cube is a quest where all teams start with 9 lives.

Each time a team makes an unsuccessful challenge, a life is taken away, and the team must repeat the challenge until successful. Any team that runs out of lives is "defeated" by The Cube and loses all their accumulated points.

At any stage, a team may stop and retire before attempting the next challenge. However, any points they have won are forfeited before going into Part 2 of The Cube. Once a team decides not to play, they cannot change their decision.

On That Note

On that note... test your musical knowledge with this extremely unique music trivia you may be more familiar with Nooit Vir Nooit; anyway, this is the same fun activity.

This challenge comprises an array of different challenges and categories. Take note of: Finishing the Lyrics, Trivia Quiz, Match-Up, Guess Who, Guess What, and many more.

Guests will have to show off their vivace skills when a certain song starts. Adapted to involve young and old and tailored to suit your group, it promises to entertain the crowd, have them on their feet, and it's never over until the fat lady sings!

BIG Trivia Quiz Show

Our extremely popular Big Trivia Quiz Show has players thinking together, solving riddles and answers to questions under the eye of our expert quizmaster. Each team receives 2 "Doofus" tokens, which they can redeem to get answers from other teams.

Our audio-visual presentation consists of 6 specialised sections, ranging from general knowledge to sport, music, movies, and TV.

The versatility of this activity allows for sections to be tailored to the client's needs, making it an ideal learning or training tool. As the rounds move on, questions require more lateral thinking and faster solutions, and it's not uncommon for teams to scream out for more time! Enjoy a fun-filled adventure.

Wild Card Bingo

Wild Card Bingo is a corporate game show featuring a mix of interaction, excitement, fast-paced fun, and thought-provoking trivia challenges.

You will play rounds that include:

- Human Bingo
- Team Challenge Bingo
- Trivia Bingo
- Music Bingo

It's nothing like your grandma's bingo hall. The atmosphere is lively and friendly; instead of calling out numbers, your facilitator/emcee plays music, and you cross off squares on your board based on singers, songs, or genres. It's great fun, and the prizes are awarded for teams and/or individuals.

Company Feud

This adapted game show, based on the popular show 'Family Feud', will question the teams with general survey-based questions. When a team gives an answer to the question, our games host will turn to the board and ask what the survey said—meaning the popular responses that have been included for the purpose of the event.

Weakest Link

On The Weakest Link, teams of contestants compete to win a top amount by playing a quiz/penalty contest.

At the end of each round, teams vote off the weakest link (the team they thought compromised their standing). In each round, the team's goal is to reach the target of the maximum value within a time limit. They do this by correctly answering a series of questions posed by the host.

Spy Trivia

What type of spy are you? Would you make a good spy? This is a new, hilarious, interactive activity which is hosted by our game host.

Teams have the chance to show off their cunning and sleuthing skills while attempting to answer or successfully accomplish 'spy' tasks and questions. Teams will need to brush up on their knowledge of the world's most famous fictional spies, such as James Bond, etc.

Deal or No Deal

Teams need to make wise decisions as they attempt to gain points from chosen cases. The 'Banker' offers the team a points value to 'quit' by trying to buy them 'Deal or No Deal.'

Wheel of Fortune

Teamwork is needed as teams guess hidden phrases by choosing letters. The wheel determines the points to be won for each correct consonant, but they have to pay.

The Chase

Teams amass as many points as possible before playing against the 'chaser,' whose job is to catch each team in the rounds and prevent them from winning any points, which they can use in the final chase.

Murder Mystery

Use deception to achieve an end. Each one offers its own twists and turns as team players work together, gathering intelligence or clues that will help them piece together the puzzle of "who-dunnit."

Each event is tailored and can include elements from your industry in the actual event.

We bring audio-visual elements and props* to enhance the atmosphere and make these activities something to remember.

Duration: 2 to 3 hours per activity.

Superhero Assembly

Superheroes Assembly is the yearly get-together of the Justice Confederation superheroes. The primary agenda topic is how to apprehend the notorious villain Da Bomb, who is assembling an army of robotic bombs to take over the world. The superheroes need to devise a strategy to stop him—and fast!

Spy Espionage - 007

A gathering of all countries' best secret service agents is called to a priority-level briefing on how the United Nations can find a solution for lasting world peace. Unfortunately, the event is interrupted as counter operatives, or double agents, steal a digitally encrypted memory stick containing sensitive information from the vault.

Mystery Murder Dinner

Mystery Murder Dinner is your typical who-dunnit! Dr. Doom, a famous chemist, hosts a dinner at his mansion to resolve all past differences with those he has wronged. Before making amends, he's found murdered. Someone in the mansion is the murderer!

Way Out West Mystery

Join us in a thrilling event of scheming, intrigue, and skulduggery. With Way-Out West Mystery, you will be in the middle of the action, and it will be up to you to wheel and deal with the other guests. Can you achieve your goals, keep your secrets hidden, and survive Way Out West? It's up to you!

Catch the Spy Before you Die

Be a highly trained secret service character who leads a normal life until you are 'activated' for a covert operation by Miss Funnunny, your operative handler. She has invited all her agents for a VIP dining experience, as she suspects one of them to be a double agent and saboteur.

Catch the Spy Before You Die will expose the villain and threat by means of a series of unremitting challenges.
